

TOP CALLING

Prayer Updates

- Pray for our family. It's been a hard month with lots of family issues.
- Pray for safety in travels as I speak at churches and events this coming month.
- Pray for more opportunities to share the gospel with some new friends who don't know the Lord.
- Pray for special projects I'm working on with the president of BCM. I'm very excited about some organizational leadership opportunities coming up for the remainder of the year.
- Pray for three people considering becoming missionaries with BCM.

I hope you've been enjoying this fall weather! September has been a whirlwind, hasn't it!? I can't believe I'm already sending out the next Lowe Down! It's been a great month of ministry, and I'm excited to share some updates with you!

Discerning God's Calling:

I am excited that two churches have asked me to teach, TOP Calling, this fall! This is a course I developed in 2018 to help give people clarity on the topic of discerning God's calling and purpose for their life. I love teaching this course because I feel it has helped so many people get clarity on an often vague and mysterious topic within Christian circles.

Coming up next month, I will also be teaching this course to a group of Chilean leaders, via Zoom, as part of a curriculum to earn their degree in ministry. And then again, one more time for a gap year program in November.

If you'd like to go through this course, let me know! Maybe I'll run an online course for those interested.

I am excited to announce that I am launching, The Cornerstone Coffee Break! This will be a weekly resource to help people deepen their faith, discover their purpose, and develop their leadership. It will be sent every Tuesday!

Much of the content will be the same amazing stuff that I use to develop leaders in churches, missions, and the marketplace. I'm looking forward to helping more leaders grow in this way.
