When it Rains it Pours...

October started off with 5 days of straight rain. It just poured and I thought to myself, "I hope this means the majority of October is going to be sunny and beautiful!"

Well, last month my update included a ton of blessings, and now this month, unfortunately, I have a lot of prayer requests, because it seems that "when it rains, it pours." But God is so faithful! And good to us!

For the Lowe family, we are experiencing a lot of things breaking or falling apart in our house. There are a lot of things that need repaired or replaced and it is really taking a toll on the ole check book (although I don't really use checks very often). I'll share specifics in the left-hand column under Prayer Requests.

As far as ministry is going, LOTS of great stuff!! I'm continuing to praise God for the significant work being done in Latin America! Carlos and his wife Marion have been such an encouragement to work with and are making an incredible impact!

I also had the privilege to work with Solid Rock Youth Ministries in Quarryville with some leadership and strategy sessions last week. They are making a huge impact in lives of many young people and families. You can find more information about them at: <https://www.solidrockquarryville.com/>

This weekend (Oct 28-31) I'll be headed out to western PA to do some work on the house with a friend. We are still planning on eventually building a Christian Retreat Center out there. One step at a time (or, one piece of drywall at a time).

November Ministry Opportunity

I am so excited for the opportunity to teach a course for One Life, a gap year program, located in WV. I will be teaching their Life and Calling course and will be using a curriculum I wrote entitled, TOP Calling. The curriculum focuses on how your Talents, Opportunities, and Passion all work together to partner with God to meet needs in the world.

If you're not familiar with gap-year programs, head over to the One Life website - <https://onelifepath.org/> - for more information. It's a great organization and maybe you know someone who might benefit from their program.
