

Some September PRAISES

-Cherith is off to a great start with homeschool! She prayed all summer to get into a co-op where her good friends go, and we got a call the week before it started telling us she got accepted!

-Our support is up to 70% which is great! God continues to provide every month!

-The BCM Latin America Candidate Orientation and Leadership event was a big success!

-I attended a leadership conference in Ohio that was so inspiring and has renewed my energy and motivation for God's mission!

-I was able to help with training future BCM leaders from Europe to prepare them for their upcoming

God's Presence and Provision

Wow, the months seem to be flying by so fast! I am so thankful for all that God is doing and the ways that I see Him moving in our family, community, and around the world.

I decided to fill up that left column with praises instead of requests this month because I'm just feeling overwhelmed with God's blessings and provision. Making the transition into full-time mission work was probably the hardest decision I made up to this point in my life. It was both scary and exciting. But since that decision, I have felt God's presence and seen His movement so consistently and powerfully.

I was honored to speak at BCM's Day of Prayer event earlier this month. And I know I said this in an earlier update, but BCM's commitment and practice of prayer is very inspiring (and challenging) for me! It's not like I didn't pray in my other ministries, but BCM prays A LOT! And I find myself praying more throughout the day.

In other news, Cherith is turning 10 on October 7th! God brought a young couple into our lives that Heather and I have been able to mentor. I'm teaching a workshop on discovering God's calling to a group of business leaders tomorrow (Sept. 27).
...and FALL IS MY FAVORITE SEASON 😊

Love Hill

Earlier this month I was officiating a wedding and I got to meet the owner of this beautiful barn (which is not a wedding venue). Their ministry is focused on running retreats mainly for recovery ministries. The owner gave me a lot of good wisdom and insight for running a retreat center, which is still part of our family's vision for ministry on the property out in western PA.

Join our Support Team

<https://www.cornerstoneleadership.org/donate>